 Special Term of the Fayette Circuit Court October 20th 1852.

one third of the Value of the personalty, holding her Note for the same. And the Court reserves the power hereafter, to appropriate to the Widow out of the proceeds of the above Sales, a sum sufficient to indemnify her for giving up her Dower in the realty herein sold, and permitting it to go to discharge the Debts of the intestate.

William T. Bryan is appointed the Commissioner to Carry this Decree into effect, and he shall make his report to Court of all his action under the same.

Ordered that Court be adjourned until Saturday Morning Next 10. O'Clock

A. C. Goodloe

Saturday Morning, October 23rd 1852.

Court met Pursuant to Adjournment

Present. The Honorable William C. Goodloe Circuit Judge

George R. C. Todd — Complainant

vs

Robert S. Todd & Others — Defendants

Chancery

J. K. C. Todd filed his own Affidavit, and that of W. A. McChesney, to which they hereto fore made Oath in the Clerks Office, and thereupon moved the Court to set aside the order made herein on the day of October 1852. quashing the sale of the Slaves Bunn and Harvey to him, and to require the Commissioners to Carry said Sale into effect; said Todd also offered to purchase the residue of the Slaves at $5. above the appraisement and to execute his Bonds for the same with good Security, He also moved the Court, in Case the foregoing Motions should be overruled, to make him an allowance for his improvements upon said slaves since his purchase. All of which motions are by Consent of parties submitted to W. McC. Payne Esq to sit as Judge of this Court, who will decide the motions on Saturday next, when either party may produce further Affidavits in support or denial of them.

Harrison & Hunt for Todd

Robinson & Johnson for Todds adm & heirs.

A. D. Hunt & H. K. Hunt — Complainants

vs

Henrietta Morgan & Others — Defendants

Chancery

The Commissioner Thomas T. Redd this day returned his Report of Settlement with the Complainants as the Trustees of Henrietta Morgan, which is Noted. And it is ordered that said Report and Settlement lie over until the first day of the next February Term of this Court for exceptions.

Ordered that Court be adjourned until Court in Course

A. C. Goodloe